

Darkness

Written by Gary L. Vincent, BMI

Line 1: I never really got to talk to her because I never knew what to say
She never really got to talk to me and now she walks away in . . .

Buildup: Darkness, that's all that remains
I've wondered in the light too long and things are not the same
Darkness, the shadows that surround me
I've wondered in a locked up room and I can't find the key!

Chorus: Woman, you better let your feelings show
Your world is going gray and there's something you should know
That if you reap the fruits of passion from this land
Darkness will surround you . . . And you'll lose your loving man

Line 2: Maybe we were both afraid, maybe we were shy
I can't answer for you babe, but I can guess the reason why this

Buildup: Darkness, is all that I feel
I've wondered in this lonely world not knowing what is real
Darkness, no sunlight up above me
I've wondered in the desert and I can't find the sea!

Chorus: Woman, you better let your feelings show
Your world is going gray and there's something you should know
That if you reap the fruits of passion from this land
Darkness will surround you . . . And you'll lose your loving man

(Repeat Chorus)
