

The Seeds That You Sow

From the album 100 PERCENT, written by Gary L. Vincent, BMI

Line 1: Baby there's a fire – deep in my soul
And though I've never told you – it's getting out of control
And I know I've never told you – the way I feel inside
It breaks my heart to think you're out tonight

Well, they say that life's a garden and the actions that we know
Are the seeds that we plant – are the seeds that will grow
And if you're with another beyond the warmth and candle's glow
Somewhere down the line you'll reap the seeds that you sow

Chorus: The seeds that you sow will haunt you someday
You'll be all alone and not sure of a way
Baby I've gave you love, but love was not enough
To keep you from going with the flow

Oh, someday maybe you will see what your love has done to me
When you reap the seeds that you sow

Line 2: Baby there's a passion – that burns deep inside
But if this love's for you girl, then it cannot be denied
And I know this road you're taking forces you to choose
Fate must find an answer and it all comes down to you

Well they say that distant thunder – travels from afar
And I would go through any rain storm just to find out where you are
But if you're with another like a side act in a show
Somewhere down the line you'll reap the seeds that you sow

Repeat Chorus
