

The Wrong Way

From the album 100 PERCENT, written by Gary L. Vincent, BMI

Chorus: I'm headed down the wrong way
I'm looking for the sunshine when it's not day
I know it sounds crazy but I'll have to say
I'm headed down the wrong way

Line 1: Some say love is a two-way street
But you're going out with every single guy you meet
I thought we had rhythm, but I'm feeling the heat
I'm headed down the wrong way

Line 2: I thought we made the perfect pair
But there's rumors going around everywhere
You're the honky-tonk queen on a silver tray
And I'm headed down the wrong way

Chorus: I'm headed down the wrong way
I'm looking for the sunshine when it's not day
I know it sounds crazy but I'll have to say
I'm headed down the wrong way

Line 3: You say your love is healthy and I better stay fit
Some give up smoking but it's you I'd better quit
Before you rub my face in the clay
For heading down the wrong way

Chorus: I'm headed down the wrong way
I'm looking for the sunshine when it's not day
I know it sounds crazy but I'll have to say
I'm headed down the wrong way

(Repeat Chorus – this time with emphasis on drums and bass)
(Repeat Chorus – with full instrumentation)

Tag: Yes, I'm heading down the wrong way!
